Interview outlines

Possible questions of a parents' interview

- About the student:
    - Describe your child in a few words.
    - What do you consider important to tell about your child?
    - What are the strengths of your child? What is she/he good in?
    - What kind of support your child might need?
    - What are your difficulties as a parent?
    - Describe your child's school life.
- Family background:
    - Who are the members of the family?
    - What do family members do? Is there anybody who is unemployed, inactive, on maternity leave, retired, or getting disability support?
    - How many dependents are in the family?
    - Is there any disabled member of the family living with the family? If so, what kind of disability does he/she have?
    - Is there any addicted person in the family? If so what kind of addiction does he/she have?
    - Would you like to share any further important thing about your family?

- Living conditions:
    - What kind of house do you live in? (family house, flat, etc.)
    - What is the size of it? (………m^2; number of the rooms …….. pcs;)
    - What is the comfort level of it?
    - Who owns it?
    - How far is it from the school?
    - Do any of your children attend a boarding school? (yes/no)
- Income of the family:
    - What is the approximate income per person?
    - Does the family receive any social benefit? (child protection, discounts for large families, etc.)

- Health:
    - Does your child have any disease?
    - If so, since when? Does he/she get the appropriate treatment?
    - Does your child take medicines regularly? If so, what kind of medicine?
- Social, supportive background:
    - What kind of help might you have when a family problem occurs, and from whom?
    - Have you ever taken the support of any helping organization? If so, which one/s?
- Future plans:
    - What are your plans after your child completed his/her studies in this school?